We need goodness, we need the beauty of love to move us, and we need to be told the truth. You have pulled out all the stops, held nothing back, and declared it from the rooftops! Thank you for loving your neighbor and loving God.

Sold on the series after the first episode! This needs to be watched worldwide—many in our society are in dire need of faith! Many have the faith, but are barely holding on to it. I hope this reaches millions Many prayers for a great awakening—our society needs it!

ROSEMARY

This series powerfully expresses all the beautiful realities we often forget, and pulls them together in a way that logically shows us the love of God. This is so important for people of all ages, but especially for all of our young people! I will use this series with the young people in our parish to “wake them up!”

I watched with my children. My thirteen-year-old son did not want to, but I told him that he needed to. My seventeen-year-old daughter was fully open to it. It led to a beautiful, spirited discussion about what amazed them and got their attention. Then my son asked what time confession was tomorrow. My daughter stated that all teens need to watch this! Transformative!

This fourth episode was like experiencing the finest meal of your lifetime. Everything that has gone into the preparation of each course is perfect—the seasonings, the texture, the taste, the presentation, and the choice of wine is delightful. You come away knowing that you will never enjoy another meal as much as what you have just consumed. It satisfies and you come away needing nothing more. This is awesome! Thank you for taking us along this Search in our lives.

This series is so phenomenal! I was riding as a passenger, and I asked my adult daughter if I could listen to episode 6 out loud in the car. She listened with me, and she's not a religious person. When it finished, she was blown away. She wants to listen to the entire series, and to buy it to play for others as well.
